

“Left” and “Right” Press

(Answer to Mike Adams from Natural News)

What I don't understand, Mike, is this division into “leftist” and “rightist”. Surely this is all part and parcel of the programme to “divide and conquer” as promulgated by Julius Caesar. I perceive no difference in the press.

If they tell us lies, it's somehow OK-ish if a leftist magazine lies to a rightist group and vice versa???

We have a similar thing running in Europe with the phantom group “Islamisten” - purely a press invention backed a little by Rothschild's Mujahidin/ Al Qaida/ISIS etc. - and an apparently public movement of dubious origin called PEGIDA which purports to oppose the islamifying of Europe. The only “evidence” of the putative “islamifying”, however, turns out to be mostly press inventions.

The facts of the matter are that there are a lot less than one million who wish to maintain the present system of exploitation.

Just so long as they can keep us divided against ourselves, we 6,9 billion will remain their slaves. The minute we stand and act together, is the same minute in which their system will cease to be.

Now do you understand what the press (incidentally, 98% owned by the Rockefeller/Rothschild consortium) are doing; they're just following orders to be as divisive as they know how. Maybe a little compassion would help re-educate those journalists and editors into working for instead of against humanity?

Blessed be
